The Chairmen of the Danish Economic Councils invites to the yearly Danish Environmental Economic Conference at Kurhotel Skodsborg the 22nd and 23rd of August 2024.

The content of the conference

The conference will feature a keynote lecture by Professor Clive L. Spash, University of Vienna, within the topic of Ecological economics. In addition, the conference offers parallel sessions with presentations of the participants' own work as well as two special sessions with panel debates on Biodiversity and the economy and The green transition and fiscal sustainability. The first day of the conference ends with a conference dinner, where Professor Michael Bang Petersen will give a presentation on the subject of Crisis awareness in relation to the green transition. By default, all presentations will be in English.

Abstracts

All interested are invited to submit abstracts in English for presentations no later than the 4th of June. Contributions can be scientific or deal with current issues relating to climate, energy or environmental economics. A template for abstracts is available at our website. Abstracts are to be sent to konference@dors.dk.

Free-of-charge places for students

There will be 3 free-of-charge places for students. A free-of-charge place gives access to both days of the conference incl. meals (excl. accommodation), as well as to the conference dinner Thursday evening. Students who are in the process of writing a master thesis in climate, energy or environmental economics will be given priority, and may be asked to present their thesis at the conference. Interested students should send an application (max. 1 page) before the 4th of June to konference@dors.dk. Applicants who are in the process of writing their master thesis are asked to include the analytical question and the expected results of the thesis in their application, as well as to state whether the thesis may be presented at the conference.
