

Current Danish and European Environmental Policy

The aim of the talk is to give an overview of upcoming environmental policies that are expected to have socioeconomic impacts in Denmark. The focus will be both on current and upcoming proposals for EU directives and the development of new Danish environmental regulation.